YMCA offers Youth Basketball Program

Basketball Program includes Fundamentals and League for Ages 3 to 3rd Grade.

Kandiyohi County, January 2, 2019 – The Kandiyohi County Area Family YMCA will offer its upcoming Youth Basketball Season for kids ages 3 to 3rd Grade. The program focuses on skill development, rules of the game, sportmanship, character development and fun. Everybody plays and everybody wins.

Volunteer coach applications are being accepted. A coaches meeting will be held on January 10 at 5:30 pm. Those interetested in coaching may contact Nicholas McBeain at 320-222-9622 or at nicholasm@kandiyymca.org.

The season begins on January 12 at the YMCA with skills assessments and drills for grades 1-3. Jerseys will be available for purchase for $10.00. Each player must have the jersey to play. Following the day's activities, teams and practice times will be sent to players and parents.

The season will run from January 12 through March 2. Lil' Basketball for 3-5 year olds will be Saturdays only from 8:15-9:00 am. Kindergarten Basketball will be Saturdays only from 9:00-10:00 am. Grades 1-3 will have practices are one day per week on either Tuesday or Thursday based on coaches availability and games on Saturdays.

Nicholas McBeain, Program Director, states, "Our program encourages kids to play hard, to work with their teammates, to be good sports, and to enjoy the game."

Register now! To register for the YMCA Youth Basketball program, stop by the YMCA Welcome enter or register on-line at www.kandiyymca.org. Cost is just $48.00 for the 8-week session. YMCA members receive a $10.00 discount. For more information on YMCA Youth Basketball, contact Nicholas McBeain at 320-222-9622.
