YOUTH FOOTBALL

YMCA Youth Football focuses on three primary objectives: Fun, Fundamentals and Character Development. Staff and volunteer coaches will teach the fundamental skills of football like blocking, passing, catching, handoffs, footwork and kicking. A part of each weekly session will include a low-key game with adult quarterbacks. YMCA staff present a weekly Character Development Theme stressing the YMCA's Core Values of Caring, Honestly, Respect and Responsibility and how they relate to basic sports premises of teamwork, sportsmanship and fair play.

YMCA Football is open to Boy's and Girl's in Kindergarten though 4th Grade. All grades use a flag system. Practices will be held on the YCMA grounds. In the event of bad weather we will practice in the YMCA gym.
